

IDLookup.ai Privacy Policy

Draft policy document prepared for legal review

Effective Date: [Insert Date] | Last Updated: [Insert Date] This Privacy Policy explains how [Insert Legal Entity Name], doing business as IDLookup.ai, collects, uses, discloses, sells, shares, retains, and protects personal information in connection with the IDLookup.ai website, products, reports, subscription services, account features, communications, and related services. By using IDLookup.ai, you acknowledge this Privacy Policy.

1. Scope of This Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy applies to information we collect through IDLookup.ai, including:

- information you provide directly;
- information collected automatically when you use the Service;
- information obtained from public records, public sources, commercial data providers, marketing partners, data suppliers, and other third-party sources;
- information included in people-search reports;
- information related to accounts, subscriptions, trials, payments, customer support, and privacy requests.

This Policy does not apply to third-party websites or services that we do not control.

2. Information We Collect

A. Information You Provide

This may include:

- name;
- email address;
- phone number;
- mailing address;
- account login details;
- search inputs;
- support messages;
- identity verification information submitted for privacy requests;
- payment-related information, processed by our payment providers;

- subscription, trial, billing, cancellation, and account status information.

B. Information Collected Automatically

When you use the Service, we and our service providers may collect:

- IP address;
- device identifiers;
- browser type;
- operating system;
- referring URLs;
- pages viewed;
- search activity;
- session activity;
- timestamps;
- approximate location derived from IP address;
- cookie and tracking technology data;
- analytics and performance data.

C. Information From Public, Commercial, and Third-Party Sources

Because IDLookup.ai is a people-search and public-records service, we may collect or receive information from:

- public records;
- government records and databases;
- publicly available websites;
- commercial data providers;
- data licensors;
- marketing partners;
- identity, contact, demographic, and public-records databases;
- other legally available sources.

This information may include:

- names and aliases;
- age or date-of-birth indicators;
- addresses and address history;
- phone numbers;
- email addresses;

- relatives, associates, or household links;
- public records;
- property records;
- criminal, court, or legal-record indicators where available and legally permitted;
- social or web presence indicators;
- demographic or inferred information;
- other information available from public or commercial sources.

3. How We Use Information

We may use personal information to:

- provide people-search results and report-detail access;
- create, maintain, and secure accounts;
- process subscriptions, trials, payments, renewals, cancellations, and refunds;
- provide customer support;
- verify and respond to privacy, opt-out, access, deletion, correction, and suppression requests;
- improve search quality and report matching;
- operate, test, improve, and personalize the Service;
- detect fraud, abuse, unauthorized access, scraping, misuse, or security incidents;
- send transactional, account, billing, legal, and service communications;
- send marketing communications where permitted;
- measure advertising and marketing performance;
- comply with applicable laws, regulations, legal processes, and enforcement obligations;
- protect our rights, users, systems, and business.

4. How We Disclose Information

We may disclose personal information to:

- service providers and contractors;
- payment processors;
- hosting, analytics, security, email, customer support, and infrastructure vendors;
- data suppliers and licensors;
- fraud-prevention, compliance, and verification providers;

- professional advisors, including lawyers, accountants, auditors, and consultants;
- government agencies, regulators, courts, or law enforcement where required or permitted by law;
- parties involved in a merger, acquisition, financing, restructuring, sale of assets, bankruptcy, or similar transaction;
- other parties with your consent or at your direction.

5. Sale or Sharing of Personal Information

Depending on how IDLookup.ai operates, some disclosures of personal information may be considered a "sale" or "sharing" under certain privacy laws, including California law.

IDLookup.ai may make personal information available through people-search reports, data products, advertising technologies, analytics tools, or third-party data relationships in ways that may be considered a sale or sharing under applicable law.

Eligible consumers may opt out of sale or sharing by submitting a request at <https://www.idlookup.ai/contact>.

[Add "Do Not Sell or Share My Personal Information" link if applicable.]

6. Cookies and Tracking Technologies

We may use cookies, pixels, tags, SDKs, local storage, analytics tools, advertising technologies, and similar technologies to:

- operate the Service;
- keep users logged in;
- remember preferences;
- analyze traffic and usage;
- improve performance;
- detect abuse and fraud;
- measure marketing campaigns;
- deliver or evaluate advertising.

You may be able to control cookies through your browser settings. Some features may not function properly if cookies are disabled. Where required by law, we will provide additional controls for cookie consent, opt-out, or preference management.

7. Data Broker and Public Records Notice

IDLookup.ai may collect and make available personal information obtained from public records, publicly available sources, and commercial data providers.

If IDLookup.ai qualifies as a data broker under applicable law, we will comply with applicable data-broker registration, disclosure, deletion, opt-out, and reporting obligations.

California's data-broker program requires qualifying businesses to register annually with CalPrivacy, and California's Delete Act requires certain data brokers to process deletion requests through the state's deletion mechanism beginning August 1, 2026.

8. Privacy Rights

Depending on where you live, you may have rights regarding your personal information, including the right to:

- know or access the personal information we collect, use, disclose, sell, or share;
- request deletion of personal information;
- request correction of inaccurate personal information;
- opt out of sale or sharing;
- limit use or disclosure of sensitive personal information, where applicable;
- receive information about categories of personal information collected and disclosed;
- appeal a denied privacy request, where required;
- not be discriminated against for exercising privacy rights.

To exercise rights, contact us at <https://www.idlookup.ai/contact>.

9. Verification of Requests

To protect privacy and prevent unauthorized access, we may need to verify your identity before processing certain requests. Verification may require you to provide information sufficient for us to confirm that you are the person who is the subject of the request or that you are authorized to act on that person's behalf.

We may deny requests if we cannot verify identity, if an exception applies, or if the request is fraudulent, excessive, unlawful, or technically infeasible.

10. Authorized Agents

Where required by law, you may use an authorized agent to submit a privacy request. We may require proof that the agent is authorized to act on your behalf and may also require you to verify your identity directly with us.

11. Removal, Suppression, and Deletion Requests

You may request that IDLookup.ai remove, suppress, delete, or restrict certain personal information from appearing in IDLookup.ai search results or reports, subject to applicable law and verification requirements.

Removal from IDLookup.ai does not necessarily remove information from:

- public records;
- government databases;
- search engines;
- archived pages;
- third-party websites;
- other data brokers;
- original data sources;
- third-party data providers.

We may retain certain information as needed to process opt-out or suppression requests, prevent re-publication, comply with law, resolve disputes, detect fraud, enforce agreements, or maintain business records.

12. Sensitive Personal Information

Some information available through public records or third-party sources may be considered sensitive under certain laws.

We do not intentionally use sensitive personal information for purposes other than providing the Service, complying with law, verifying requests, preventing fraud or abuse, maintaining security, or other legally permitted purposes.

[Counsel should confirm whether IDLookup collects, infers, displays, sells, or shares sensitive personal information and whether a "Limit the Use of My Sensitive Personal Information" link is required.]

13. Children's Privacy

The Service is intended for adults and is not directed to children under 18. We do not knowingly collect account-registration information from children under 13.

If you believe a child has provided personal information directly to us, contact us at <https://www.idlookup.ai/contact>.

14. Data Retention

We retain personal information for as long as reasonably necessary to provide the Service, operate our business, comply with legal obligations, resolve disputes, enforce agreements, maintain security, prevent fraud or abuse, honor suppression requests, and fulfill the purposes described in this Policy.

Retention periods may vary depending on the type of information, source, legal requirements, account status, and business purpose.

15. Security

We use reasonable administrative, technical, and physical safeguards designed to protect personal information. No system, website, database, or transmission method is completely secure. We cannot guarantee absolute security.

16. Payment Information

Payment information is processed by our payment processors. IDLookup.ai does not necessarily store full payment-card numbers. Payment processing is subject to the privacy and security practices of the applicable payment provider.

17. Marketing Communications

We may send marketing emails or other communications where permitted by law. You may opt out of marketing emails by using the unsubscribe link or following the instructions in the message.

Even if you opt out of marketing, we may still send transactional, account, billing, legal, security, or service-related messages.

18. State-Specific Notices

Residents of certain states may have additional privacy rights. These may include rights to access, delete, correct, opt out of targeted advertising, opt out of sale, opt out of certain profiling, and appeal denied requests.

We will process state privacy requests in accordance with applicable law.

[Counsel should add state-specific sections for California, Colorado, Connecticut, Virginia, Utah, Oregon, Texas, Montana, Delaware, Iowa, Tennessee, New Jersey, New Hampshire, Maryland, Minnesota, Nebraska, and other applicable states depending on launch footprint and data practices.]

19. International Users

IDLookup.ai is intended for users located in the United States. If you access the Service from outside the United States, you understand that your information may be processed in the United States or other jurisdictions where privacy laws may differ from those in your location.

20. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. The updated version will be posted on the Service with a revised "Last Updated" date. If required by law, we will provide additional notice or obtain consent for material changes.

21. Contact Us

For privacy questions, requests, or concerns, contact us at <https://www.idlookup.ai/contact>.

[Insert Company Mailing Address]. [Insert Privacy Email, if separate].